Outskirts Press, United States, 2014. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 198 x 127 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Reflection on the women characters in my book! There are a number of women who made an impact in my life s journey. Each one had their own special way of contributing in the healing of my deep wounds. One healed me with spirituality, another with care and compassion and one with her strength and empathy. While one as a physician went beyond my mental condition, deep into my heart and reached my inner feelings. Others have contributed with the basic needs of life; food, shelter and a shoulder to cry on when needed. They all encouraged me to move forward, which has helped me to adjust to life in marriage. They gave me confidence, one encouraged me to write a book in order to fulfill this achievement, while others gave me financial support. As I reached this point in my life, I find myself feeling more complete.Why? What gave me this feeling? It was my determination of reuniting my broken family. Once I had a mother and siblings who were like snowflakes in my life, to melt away before I could enjoy them. I have now found all the ingredients of Motherhood in each of the woman I met during my growth and journey. As I was filling this void in my life, I gained strength to reach out and touch a hand. Behind the emotional trails I encountered, I ve always felt another strength eluding me.it was the asset of my husband. He s a wise, patient, and gentle man standing right next to me, shoulder to shoulder. All the qualities of these women in my life contained in this amazing partner. Who cherishes me...
