Im giving you that option, I want you just like I want my babies because a mother loves her children no matter what. Im sure your mom loves you even though she can only see you from heaven. You can be a good person all you have to do is accept help. We can help you. You just need to put the gun down and we can get started. You could see it in his eyes, I had struck a nerve. The nerve that controlled his humanity because he put the gun down. I walked up to him but I didnt see a mutant. I saw a boy who was scared because he had a wolfs ears and tail. Black eyes that nobody but a mother could see humanity in. I did what any caring person would do, I slipped the gun out of his hand and wrapped him in a motherly hug showing that looks didnt matter nor did species, it was the humanity that counts and his was there as strong as anybody else he just needed the love of a mother to bring it out. A woman living on her own thinks her life has been turned upside down when she is kidnapped and through In Vitro becomes pregnant with genetically engineered triplets. All she can think of is the lost of her child during her first pregnancy, did she really lose him Or is a crazy mad scientist the one to blame This item ships from La Vergne,TN. Paperback.
