Gooman, Anne Hagerman Wilcox, and Amy Osmond Cook, Ph.D. What is success ? And how do I cultivate it? are two questions asked by nearly every young woman today. In this timely collection of essays, 27 highly accomplished women, from doctors to business owners to stay-at-home moms, speak candidly about success and how to get there. All past participants of Distinguished Young Women, formerly America s Junior Miss, these amazing women offer a variety of perspectives on what success means and how they have achieved it. They have dreamed big, failed often, and continually learned from their experiences every step of the way. So whether you need a pep talk, some perspective about living a happy life, or savvy practical advice on how to get good grades, this book has something for you. Amy E. Goodman is a nationally recognized media maven. Her journalistic career as an editor, author, host and lifestyle expert spans magazines, news programs, and online media outlets. She s demoed yoga, interviewed celebs, cleaned out closets, and whipped up hors d oeuvres...
