Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . In this Reader s Favorite five-star rated book, author Cynthia Thillet takes us on Ezra s journey from childhood to death by crucifixion next to Jesus of Nazareth. Along the way he meets various biblical people including John the Baptist, the woman at the well and Jesus himself. We learn through his words about experiences that caused him to be condemned to death as well as why he became known as The Good Thief. We identify with Ezra as he tries many times to straighten out his life, but just doesn t seem to be able to do it on his own. You will want to have several copies of this book to share with seekers. While it is a work of fiction, eternal truths reveal themselves in an appealing story that could very well have occurred as told. My Name Is Ezra covers familiar territory in one regard, the forgiving of our sins by accepting Jesus as our Lord and Savior, but also works on another level through the recounting of Ezra s upbringing; that of parental involvement in a child s formative years, or lack thereof. A worthy message for our times. Ms. Thillet s sparse prose evokes a sense of time and place, and her clever spin on the age-old tale of sin and ultimate redemption in the eyes of God is well told and well worth the reader s investment. - Neil A White for Reader s Favorite The author, Cynthia Thillet, has taken an unusual approach by setting out the life of one of the lesser known characters of the Bible. Giving an authentic and believable account of an insignificant person s life journey, she manages...
