The People and Culture, Vacation, Tour, Holiday, Honeymoon Since ancient years, civilization was an important part of life for the people of Naxos. In current days, cultural events are in the centre of the life in the island too. Customs and traditions, cultural happenings and exhibitions, traditional cuisine, local feasts with Cycladic music and dance compose the puzzle that is called civilization. Many festivals take place in the island during summer time. The most popular are Naxos Festival , Dionysia , Axia Festival , the Festival of the Castle , Days of Kynidaros Dance and the Music Festival of Danakos . Through all these events, local people come closer to their history and tradition and visitors get to know them. Modern exhibitions of painting, sculpture, photography aim at the acquaintance with the art of today. The exhibitions are hosted at different places around the town of Naxos, as well as in the villages. Anyone interested can be informed either by posters and leaflets or by our web page in the category Exhibitions or News . Music and dance are inextricably connected with the cultural life of the island. People of Naxos are full of energy and joviality, which do not hesitate to express at every opportunity. Visitors get the chance to attend traditional dance festivals, feasts and various music events, as well as be witnesses to traditional weddings followed by the ceremonial of the place. For these reasons, Naxos is thought to be the centre of Cyclades in music and dance terms.
