POLITICAL UTOPIAS: CONTEMPORARY DEBATES (PAPERBACK)

Oxford University Press, United Kingdom, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book. Political theory, from antiquity to the present, has been divided over the relationship between the requirements of justice and the limitations of persons and institutions to meet those requirements. Some theorists hold that a theory of justice should be utopian or idealistic—that the derivation of the correct principles of justice should not take into account human and institutional limitations. Others insist on a realist or...
