Though a little older in years than most of you, I feel more and more as the days go on that I am a child again whenever I look into your young faces. I propose that we, you and I, not the big people, but you and I, open a little school for the study of God s Word. Here, once a week, we shall come to school with just one book, not a big pile in a strap, but just one, the Bible itself, and sitting down at the Master s feet, hear what He has to tell us out of it. Not all of it, for summer and winter, and all eternity, would not be enough to listen to all He can tell us of Himself in His Word. But just some of it. (1) Some people in it; (2) Some things about them; (3) Some easy lessons we can all learn from them. Not only the big people, grown up men and women, like Abraham and David...
