I ll not be the next curator to die.  In this short reads mystery series, Curators at the infamous Billamore Hall Museum and Art Gallery are being mysteriously murdered, and now no one will accept the job. except Sandra Peterson. What mystery does the Hall hold that is causing the curators to be murdered and why? The cozy Massachusetts town of Billamore has been home to the infamous Hall for over 200 years. Renowned for its rare and somewhat macabre collections, being curator there has been a life-long dream for the intelligent, level-headed Sandra. Unlike her best friend, Josephine, who believes in the existence of all things unseen and supernatural, Sandra refuses to be scared off by ghost stories and strange circumstances. But, when Sandra discovers a hidden painting in the museum, a shocking secret is revealed, drawing her deep into a world of intrigue she never knew existed. What is so powerful about an obscure painting that has lain hidden for over a hundred and fifty years? And why does it affect Sandra so personally? She has now become the next target of the unknown assassin. And all her answers lie in the past. This entire series is available under one cover at a huge discount: Mysteries Of Billamore Hall: Complete Series Collection, Paperback Edition.
