Excerpt from The Ancient of Days Renewed: Or the History of the United States The Scriptures are written in numerals, miracles, symbols, orders, names, threatenings, commandments, promises, parables and many wonderful ceremonials, all of which go to make a mystery of mysteries, unparalleled by anything that ever came before the mind of man, all of which are hieroglyphics for man to interpret the Scriptures, as the advancement of man is the progression of the literal creation, the proofs of which rest upon physical science; in this there is no mistake, as mathematics cannot be disputed. We find in the prophecies many dates, epochs, intervals and numbers, all of which have a mathematical meaning, the proof of which has been accumulating every hour since the birth of Christ, which was the creation of all things; also all time that the Scriptures furnish a correct chronological history, as there is no correct chronology from the supposed six days creation to the birth of Christ; but all very well know that we have a correct literal chronology of 1, 897 years to the present time of our era. Yet we are not positive that those 1, 897 years began at the exact time when Christ was born, hence there is a variation of about three years in the numerical calculations of the preceding volume.
