

Confessions of a Diva (Paperback)

By Jessica N Barrow

iUniverse, United States, 2006. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .When eighteen-year-old Tomi witnesses her boyfriend end his life with a bullet to his head, her sisters, Niya and Kelise, think she will never find love again. Six years later, while working in her tattoo parlor in the small, yet crowded town of Sunny Side, Georgia, Dante walks through her door and changes her life forever. Her oldest sister, Niya, is married to Phillip, and their marriage is unraveling much faster than she cares to admit. The signs of his infidelity are blatantly visible, and she's grabbing threads to keep their marriage from falling apart. Kelise, on the other hand, has been engaged for two years to Ricardo, a wealthy traveling businessman, and wishes her marriage would unravel a tad faster. With each passing day, Kelise becomes lonelier and more depressed. When Niya catches her husband in bed with another woman, when Tomi comes to blows with Dante's ex-girlfriend, and when Kelise's wedding becomes sabotaged by Tomi because she slept with Tomi's recent ex, will these sisters be able to look past their own personal difficulties in order...
