MYTHIC ORBITS 2016: BEST SPECULATIVE FICTION BY CHRISTIAN AUTHORS (PAPERBACK)DOWNLOAD

Bear Publications, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . This anthology is a showcase for the best stories submitted in the general field of speculative fiction by Christian authors for this project. It represents a wide variety of genres, including science fiction, fantasy, horror, and paranormal. There is no common theme to these tales, though the subject of empathy or lack thereof does come up in them repeatedly. This is most definitely not an anthology about orbits which are somehow mythical. The main goal of this anthology was to demonstrate that Christian authors can write speculative fiction well. Stories with a wide range of appeal are included here, mostly serious, some with humor, some with happy endings and others clearly not so happy. All of them worth reading. Some of these stories feature Christian characters in speculative fiction worlds, some make use of Christian themes either subtly or overtly, while some have no discernible connection to Christianity at all. Christian authors are featured in this collection rather than specifically Christian-themed stories. There was no specific content or doctrinal test for these tales, though it happens to be that they are basically clean. As long as the violence mentioned in a few of these stories wasn't portrayed too graphically, this collection would rate a PG in the US movie rating system for the suffering mentioned in a few of these tales and a few relatively mild words like bastard. Sexuality in this anthology is limited to being attracted to someone and a single story kiss. In doctrine, these stories do what speculative fiction as a whole does--create worlds unlike our own and put the reader inside them. These stories do not assert these unreal situations are actually true.though things that are imaginary...
