Focus Forward is a journal designed to help activate the reader s capacity to become laser focused on their goals, dreams, and ambitions. If there is anything that hinders achieving our dreams it is the lack of focus; even more so than the lack of resources. Most people are limited when it comes to having the resources readily available to go after all of their dreams; especially where resources are required. Moreover, many people fall short of doing what they dream of doing because they are not able to channel all of their energies toward their dreams and goals. Focus Forward is a tool intended to help you get focused, stay focused and fulfill your dreams. Instead of losing the intensity of focus the journal will challenge your thoughts and ideas and guide you toward putting the right things in place for the achievement of your dreams. This journal asks thought provoking questions. Once you answer each question you will see for yourself just where you have allowed your circumstances and the issues of life to prevent you from staying keenly focused on what it is you re trying to achieve. Each entry prompts something to consider for the reader that leads to a more targeted approach to going after your dreams. In the journal the idea is that as the reader you can work your way through the entries and at the same time start working on what you want to achieve in your own life. For the author, completing the journal, preparing it for publications, and then getting it to market demonstrates how focus works for you the reader. Matter of fact the author is not just...
