BULLYING IN CANADA (PAPERBACK)

Oxford University Press, Canada, Canada, 2015. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book. Bullying is an age-old problem that has traditionally been seen as normal, as par-for-the-course of childhood and youth, at times even depicted as a rite-of-passage with character building benefits. More recently, however, we understand it as a public health issue with potentially serious long-term problems for health and well-being that include stress, self-harm, anxiety, and depression. This is true of perpetrators as well as victims,...
