The material stipulations are - Article 6. Vessels and effects belonging to citizens of the United States, to be protected in French ports and by French war vessels whilst in company. Article 13. Vessels with contraband goods - if the contraband goods be delivered to the captor, he. shall forthwith discharge the ship, and not hinder her by any means, freely to prosecute the voyage on which she is bound. Article 17. Shall sail with their ships with all security, no distinction being made who are the owners of their lading, from one enemy port to any other enemy port, that free ships give freedom to goods on board, even of enemy s goods, and so of persons. Article 27. In order to avoid any disorder to merchant ships met at sea by armed vessels, the latter shall remain out of cannon shot, and may enter her by two or three men only, and when her passport shall be exhibited, she shall be at liberty to pursue her voyage, so as it shall not be lawful to molest or search her in any manner,...
