Self Reliant Super and Retirement (Paperback)

By Mike Gilligan

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2012. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****. A new, comprehensive case that Australians should self manage their superannuation, including the younger with moderate account balances. The nation s super is an information catastrophe, denying those compelled to pay into it the means to plan their retirement. The book explains why this aberration has arisen and how it can be rectified - written in a self-help narrative for the five million working Australians who hold around $500 billion of compulsory savings in public superannuation funds. The evidence is that these Australians should switch to self-managing their super, for good reasons which are contrary to popular wisdom. Principally, the system of public funds is dysfunctional and has averted the most basic of its responsibilities by denying critical information to its members, to their detriment. Secondly, self-managing can be conducted at modest cost while delivering a greater benefit in retirement. The book s promise is that Australians, when properly informed, can produce more wealth, with confidence about their super and retirement outcomes. Within that narrative are some powerful messages, for each of the system s participants. Funds members discover...
