Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Neither snow nor rain nor heat nor gloom of night stays personal assistant Carrie Moore from the swift completion of her appointed rounds. She s used is used to delivering for the rich and famous. Can she mend a hunky English lord s heart and not get him deported? As a personal assistant, Carrie Moore is used to fulfilling the whims of the rich and famous, even if it means driving through a blizzard to pick up a fresh Kosher turkey for Christmas dinner. No ordinary Butterball for her employer Rosemary Stephens, an eccentric English mystery writer who s spending the winter on a remote Maine island. When the last ferry is cancelled, leaving Carrie with a turkey that s bound to get frozen, all the roads closed and no room at the local inn, what s a resourceful girl to do? Why, break in and enter, of course, along with Mrs. Stephens s titled English nephew who is stranded too. Lord Griffin Archer is an actual viscount, but there will be no roast goose and figgy pudding for him, just the random contents of Carrie s grocery bags. He s come to America to improve the family fortune, but keeping company with Carrie might result in a prison sentence or deportation. And with a broken engagement behind him, the last thing he wants to do is lose his heart again. As they snuggle up in a vintage Jaguar inside the inn s carriage house, bells ring. Alarm or Christmas? Only time will tell. This novella originally appeared in the anthology Holiday for Two. It has been extensively revised and expanded. 32,000 words.
