

La cruz de El Dorado

By Mallorquí del Corral, César

Editorial Edebé, 2006. soft. Book Condition: New. The White Ravens Award My name is Jaime Mercader although some people still know me as Little Jim I was born on the twenty one of June 1887 in Aranjuez, a town from Madrid, and these are my memories. In a way, I was a prodigy child; But, unfortunately for public morality, the activity that converted me in prodigious was poker. But, what else could anyone expect from Fernando Mercader's son, a big cheater and a swindler player. I was born with a pack of cards in hands, my dear friends, and ever since I have not released it. Being a child, and fleeing away from justice, my father and I were compelled to emigrate ourselves to America. And right away from the beginning, started the problems, because, just arriving, we sank in front of the coasts of Colombia. Once there, I worked as a waiter at a house of prostitution, I was the croupier of a pocketed a ball roulette and, after moving in to Cartagena of Indies, I became the younger card sharp of the Carib. And those were only my beginnings, because I have also been seeker of...
