

Textile Fabrics of Ancient Peru (Classic Reprint)

By William Henry Holmes

Forgotten Books. Paperback. Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. 400 pages. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 6.0in. x 0.8in. Excerpt from Textile Fabrics of Ancient Peru In open work, and especially in that variety intended as a foundation for embroidery, what is known as the twined combination is employed. In this the woof threads are twined together in pairs, including in each half turn one of the warp threads. In this way the mesh is firmly fixed, after the manner of a net. This combination is not adapted to the weaving of compact cloths, nor to the introduction of varied ornaments. It is much used in basketry. A number of varieties of combination are sometimes employed in a single piece, all being woven into the same warp. It is also very usual, as already noted, to see cloths made up of variously woven and diversely colored sections stitched together.
