Thomas Nelson. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 288 pages. Dimensions: 8.9in. x 5.9in. x 1.0in. The true story of how a group of renegade journalists fought to expose Americas darkest scandals through the Internet and how the most powerful woman in the world tried to stop them. From her war room in the White House, Hillary Clinton commanded a secret police operation dedicated to silencing dissent, muffling media critics, intimidating political foes, whitewashing Clinton scandals, and obstructing justice, all aided by a network of Clinton moles planted at every level of the news media, federal court system, intelligence agencies, and federal law enforcement. Mainstream news media spiked the story of Hillarys secret war and of the scandals she sought to conceal. But the courageous new journalists of the Internet underground defied the odds and exposed the shocking truth about historys most corrupt presidency. Written with all the drama and tension of a gripping novel, this carefully researched book gives the inside story of how these modern-day patriots endured Hillarys attacks and emerged from the battlefield to become a sprawling, innovative news source reaching tens of millions each day. Hillarys Secret War presents a tale of dogged courage and sacrifice, one of the greatest untold stories in the annals of journalism. Hillary Clinton is one of the most important political players in the last decade, and shes been nothing but trouble. This book is required reading. Ann Coulter, best-selling author of High Crimes and Misdemeanors, Slander, and Treason Hillarys Secret War chronicles the lonely battle many of us waged to expose Clinton corruption. As one who took part in that struggle, I am impressed by the accuracy of Richard Poes account. He has brought to life a shameful chapter in American history that Big Media tried to bury. Christopher Ruddy, founder and editor of...
