

The Registers of the Parish of Monks Soham, in the County of Suffolk (Classic Reprint) (Paperback)

By Claude Morley

Forgotten Books, United States, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Excerpt from The Registers of the Parish of Monks Soham, in the County of Suffolk The first mandate for keeping registers of baptisms, marriages and burials in each parish of England was issued in 1538, by Thomas Cromwell, Earl of Essex, as vicar-general 3 only some eight hundred of these very early registers are said to be still extant. The mandate was repeated in more vigorous terms upon the accession of Queen Elizabeth in 1558, but even then was so irregularly observed that in 1597 it was ordained that parchment register-books should be purchased at the expense of each parish; and at that date, too, it was required that the *churchwardens of every parish should, within a month after Easter in every year, transmit to the diocesan registry a transcript of the register of baptisms, marriages, and burials for the preceding year, to be preserved in the episcopal archives; nor was this regularly done, for the earliest transcripts at Lincoln are in 1587, and at Gloucester 1571, but few dioceses have any earlier than 1660. This is accounted for by...
