

Coldheart (Paperback)

By Justin Robinson

Captain Supermarket Press, United States, 2013. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****. San Francisco is on the edge of a blizzard, the first in a hundred years. A cannibal killer stalks the streets. A rash of abductions targets people seemingly at random. A city falling into chaos. Chris Black sees the connection. On the trail of a missing woman, he uncovers the delicate threads uniting the disparate mysteries. But he is mentally ill and all of it could be the product of his diseased mind. Balancing the fog of medication with his descent into madness, he struggles to remain lucid in the face of horror. Delving into a mystery that might be of his own making, he discovers a secret world. A world where women become serpents, the very ground can be his deadliest enemy, a world of the blackest magic. He has found the edges of something older than he can imagine, something that can change the fabric of reality. And the storm itself is his only ally. * * * The novella Coldheart opens the book, which is rounded out with five short stories. In Dante Ascending, a boy discovers...
