After a bull riding accident kill her brother Cash, Cassidy Greer s life has never been the same. She s spent the last six years working as a local EMT and taking care of her grief-stricken mother. But her dream of attending a nursing program is finally coming true. There is no space in her life for anything else-especially not a cocky bull rider. She hates the sport and wants nothing to do with it, but when she runs into her old crush, not to mention Cash s best friend, feelings she d thought long gone bubble up again.As a famous bull rider, Levi Cortez has used his status to help Topaz Falls rebuild the rodeo community he loves. Bull riding is his life, and he s dedicated his career in the name of his late best friend. Even so Cassidy wants nothing to do with him. Levi misses having her in his life, and Cassidy is doing everything she can to avoid him. He knows she s got more than she can handle with her mom and leaving for her program soon, but he s going to do everything he can to prove she ll never have to fight alone again.
