THAT S HOW WHALES ARE BORN (PAPERBACK)

Small Stations Press, United States, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.A young woman, who has left Galicia to go and study marine biology in Mexico (Baja California), is recalled to Galicia when it is found out that her mother is very sick. Her aunt would like her to sign some papers agreeing to take over the family business and renouncing her Mexican studies and emotional ties that she has forged in her new life. However, returning to Galicia and renewing her family ties is not exactly what the woman wants. Her mother has shut herself in her room for the last year, and relations between them have always been strained. She received more affection from a nanny, Felisa, and better advice from her uncle, CAndido. There is also an older brother, RamOn, a larger-than-life figure who has left an indelible mark in the lives of those around him, and an absent father. Will the woman s visit to see her sick mother turn out to be permanent, and will it soothe any of the festering wounds in her psyche, wounds that she has buried beneath her marine studies and a relationship with her one-time tutor? That s How Whales Are Born is a return to our origins, a search into the usefulness of stirring up past memories and seeking reconciliation. Anxos Sumai is one of Galicia s best contemporary novelists. Her first novels, Guardian Angels and Melody of Used Days, derived from her online diaries. She has also had great success as a radio journalist. But her reputation as a novelist was enhanced by her later novels, That s How Whales Are Born (Repsol Short Fiction Prize) and Harvest Moon (Spanish Critics Prize). In 2007, the year That s How Whales...
