Against all odds, the first privately owned space probe was on its way to Mars, but chief engineer Trevor Cadogan couldn't sleep--the demon was back, filling his head. Wicked-sharp claws, stubby curving horns and a viscous forked tale, long and scaly. The thing stood there, shifting back and forth, mocking him, silhouetted against an angry, red glow. The smoky half-light invoked a debilitating terror, flooding his mind with a premonition of doom fanned by the flames of hell. . . What is a Multi-Narrative Book This story is a customizable Multi-Narrative experience. There is only ONE plot, with ONE beginning and ONE end, but there are SEVEN different ways to customize your reading enjoyment!
