

Rent Out Your Old Residence?: Financial Latte (Paperback)

By Joseph E Poff

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2013. Paperback. Condition: New. Robin Poff (illustrator). Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Rent Out Your Old Residence is another installment in the Financial Latte series and is written by Joseph E Poff, CPA, a seasoned Certified Public Accountant (CPA) with lots of information and insights to share from his 30+ years of financial and business experience. This book covers in about a half hour some of the key concepts to consider regarding the renting of your current residence when you buy a new home and compares it to the more traditional approach of selling your old home. From Joe's experience, homeowners often assume they need to sell their old home when they buy a new one - and in some cases they are right - but, often they are missing a very good investment opportunity. Joe explains some of the key issues in this decision. He also explores cases where individuals have already rented out their previous residence and perhaps didn't realize what they had started - nor how to really account for it and report it. He gives insight on this common situation. In a...
