Biblion Publishing. Paperback. Condition: New. 54 pages. Managed healthcare companies are continuing to look at various ways to develop an effective and efficient brand among many competitors that exists in the healthcare industry. The task of healthcare firms to be the preferred provider for customers over other companies is not an easy undertaking. It requires sound marketing strategies that will establish one healthcare providers brand over anothers. Providers must establish themselves as a brand to compete. As customers are becoming more knowledgeable about healthcare and have more access to databases of all healthcare providers, the ability for a healthcare provider to properly implement the place, price, promotion, and product marketing mix variables will give that firm a sustainable competitive advantage among others. Therefore, healthcare providers must understand and utilize branding strategies based on the marketing mix variables. This book examines each marketing mix variable that a healthcare provider can utilize in order to help establish a credible, unique and powerful brand. This item ships from multiple locations. Your book may arrive from Roseburg,OR, La Vergne,TN. Paperback.
