MANAGERS OF GLOBAL CHANGE: THE INFLUENCE OF INTERNATIONAL ENVIRONMENTAL BUREAUCRACIES (HARDBACK)

MIT Press Ltd, United States, 2009. Hardback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book. An examination of the role and relevance of international bureaucracies in global environmental governance. International bureaucracies--highly visible, far-reaching actors of global governance in areas that range from finance to the environment--are often derided as ineffective, inefficient, and unresponsive. Yet despite their prominence in many debates on world politics, little scholarly attention has been given to their actual influence in recent years. Managers of Global Change...
