Excerpt from Victory Turned to Mourning: A Memorial Sermon on the Occasion of the Assassination of Abraham Lincoln April 14, 1865, Preached in the Reformed Dutch Church, Bayonne, Sabbath, April 23, 1865 The words I have read as my text were written nearly three thousand years ago. They were applicable then; for Israel, although pushed with victory having triumphed over the foes of the King - in sympathy with David, wept and mourned the fall of Ah salom, his darling son. The victory that day was turned into mourning unto all the people. Such words are applicable now. Two weeks ago joy filled every loyal heart. Our banners, baptized with blood, were crowned with victory. Through the clouds of the terrible tempest, that for four long years has deluged our land with tears and blood, light was breaking. By its illumination, the words of the angel's song at Christ's nativity could be seen once more spanning our sky, over a land not. Dissevered, but united.
