Litlikefire, United States, 2012. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . ZOOM is a bio based on the young, exceptional, self made, Trenton Woods. Since an infant, he struggled for decades to find his place in a world of startling hardships predestined his birth. With a strict upbringing, where discipline paralleled love, protection, and abuse, he feared telling of the sexual abuse he endured from the tender age of four. Silenced by fear and shame, he eventually erupted and began to self destruct without warning or reason. His personal development had been crippled. In hopes to overcome the inflicted afflictions encrypted in his head for at least a decade beyond his natural sexual maturity, he became incognito, concealing his repulsing childhood in a show of achievements and confidence. What you saw was all you got. He fought relentlessly to break the phase he felt he d become imprisoned in for so long. But, the thoughts continued to fester to no avail. Undeservingly scarred, he attempted to play out his feelings, only to be duped over and over. He was naive and then inevitably trapped into a cycle of taboos, but once again appeared a glimmer of hope. In the Blink of an Eye he would see his life change before his eyes once again, forever.
