CHANGING YOUR IDENTITY (PAPERBACK)

Xulon Press, 2013. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .It is said that the power of the name is the most elemental of all. In this, his fourth book, the author's passion for his subject is more powerful than ever. Changing your identity, the author states, is changing what affects you, what you have internalized and will respond to. [Y]our name is a prophecy of your future. Every one of us should strive for constant personal and spiritual improvement, but sometimes there is a need for drastic change. Kunle provides solid Biblical guidance for how to stand on God's promises to effectively make that change. An insightful, heartfelt and important book. A new name or identity may be required when the old has been rendered unusable or its use has more disadvantages than advantages. How do I move from a distasteful or unpleasant position or circumstance to a glorious one? Do I need to legally change my current name? What makes up my identity? What steps can I take for things to go well with me? You will gain insight into these and other solutions in this book. Be blessed as you read! Foluso Adekunle Olusegun-Emmanuel, an accountant, lectured in the university for some years before joining Ernst Young for professional training. A certified information systems audit and controls professional, Kunle assists in establishing corporate and professional governance at the highest levels. The author is passionate about establishing God's kingdom on earth and preparation for the hereafter. On February 11, 2013, God spoke to Kunle I am sending you as a covenant instrument, an agent of liberation, to liberate all mankind from all the oppressions of the enemy. Kunle is senior pastor at God's Solution Sanctuary. He is happily married...
