Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Twenty Years of Continental Work and Travel It has not been without considerable misgiving as to my competence to deal adequately with the task that I have ventured to comply with the request of my old friend and diocesan that I should write a few words of preface to his reminiscences. In doing so I must at once confess that I should look upon it as an impertinence to comment upon his recital of experiences, - in a measure unique, and consequently possessing a peculiar interest of their own, -without having had the opportunity of a previous perusal. I am, however, very grateful to the Bishop for giving me an opportunity of making a few remarks upon the general question of the British chaplaincies abroad, and of the necessity of their being subjected to episcopal supervision; for though many of my late colleagues in the diplomatic service have had equally good occasion to appreciate the devotion of the chaplains to their duties, and the enlightened zeal and energy of their diocesan, and would be able to express that appreciation in a more intelligent and attractive form than I fear lies in my own power, there is no one who has a heartier interest than I have in the welfare of the clergy officially resident on the Continent, in the success of their labours, and in the advantages derived by the various British communities from their assiduous performance of the very responsible functions which their exceptional situation involves; and further, there is no one who recognizes more sincerely the fact that they are unanimous in their sentiments of admiration and thankfulness for the wise and judicious...
