Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Ling-Nam: Or Interior Views of Southern China, Including Explorations in the Hitherto Untraversed Island of Hainan Part from the cursory glances bestowed by travellers upon the coast cities and their immediate surroundings, but little is known by the general public of the extent and nature of the Empire of China, while the great interior, with all its rich variation of surface, is almost an unknown country. The nature of this country, the distribution of its people and products, and its stores of mineral wealth, are matters of interest to all who wish to know anything about the home of that most ancient and multitudinous people. Favoured by peculiar opportunities, I have traversed the interior of south China in all directions. Sketches of my journeys have from time to time appeared in the China Review and the Chinese Recorder. They have been received with general favour, and the desirability of placing them before the public in book form has been repeatedly urged upon me by those who have read them. The interest also which I have found to invariably follow my lectures and informal talks on China leads me to hope for a favourable reception for this volume of sketches.
