Have courage--the end is near. Care for her--and keep me, too, in your heart, he cried to her, pftiously. She smiled. Then light--blinding, featureless light--poured over the vision, and George Tressady had ceased to live. END OP SIR GEORGE TRESSADY MISS BRETHERTON NOTE It ought to be stated that the account of the play Elvira, given in Chapter VII of the present story, is based upon an existing play, the work of a little known writer of the Romantic time, whose short, brilliant life came to a tragical end in 1836. M. A. W. PREFACE TO THE SECOND EDITION So many criticisms, not of a literary but of a personal kind, have been made on this little book since its appearance, that I may perhaps be allowed a few words of answer to them in the shape of...
