Carcenet Press Ltd, United Kingdom, 2011. Paperback. Condition: New. New. Language: English . Brand New Book. Chris McCully s Selected Poems includes work from 1993 to 2009, a representative selection which reveals his engagement with the precise crafts of language and poetic form. The book opens with the prose-poem Dust from his 2009 collection Polder, a meditation on extinction: dust again the voices of the pages and the voices of the lovers . Other voices follow, conversations in which civility, memories of friendship, art and literature respond to the desolation of dust, asserting what imagination can create from it. In translations from Old English, sonnets, villanelles and ballads, McCully s supple, sparing verse celebrates the fragile place in which we live, between space and space - / and both are dark .
