Excerpt: . . . reward, God useth to give abundantly of his grace, to those that walk most faithfully with him. He will shew most love to those that most love him. He will be nearest to them that most desirously draw nigh to him; while he forsaketh those that forsake him, and turneth away from those that turn away from him. The hand of our God is for good upon all them that seek him; but his power and his wrath is against all them that forsake him. (2 Chronrxv. 2; Prov. i. 32; Ezra viii. 22. ) Thus it is apparent in all these evidences, that walking with God, is not only a discovery of the goodness that men have, but the only way to increase their grace, and make them better. O what a sweet humility, and seriousness, and spirituality appeareth in the conference, or...
