Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from An Essay on the Oration Of course, this applies to deep thought only. Humor, with a moral; dramatic, patriotic, pathetic, spiritual, philosophic, imaginative, narrative - in fact, something for everybody, for the elocutionist, for the spiritual, for the humane, for the human. The essay at the end of the book, drawing a line of demarcation between poetry, rhetoric and the oration on the one hand, and the disquisition and logic on the other, contains a few hints for public speakers and writers I hope worthy consideration.
