The big cities come across as youthful and modern. Edinburgh in particular, the diva of the cities, lures with its quirky, independent shops. The Insider Tips reveal where one might understand Hitchcock's classic 'The Birds' or raise a glass with the philosophers, dreamers, workers and musicians of Glasgow. The 'Best Of' pages point out some experiences unique to Scotland, recommend things to do for free, and have tips for rainy days and where you can relax and unwind. The magic of Scotland often begins at the side of the road. Excursions & Tours take you in search of monsters and on a train journey through the country. Thereby Loch Ness should be just as much a part of the itinerary...
