Damiani, 2012. Condition: new. English Text. Bologna, 2012; clothbound, pp. 144, 100 col. ill. Mother Road è un libro che racconta la vita di Luigi "Raptuz" Muratore: dai primi graffiti nati per caso nell'hinterland milanese alle sue ultime opere acclamate dalla critica. La sua maestra è stata la strada, la "Strada Madre". La monografia è divisa in sezioni all'interno delle quali è possibile scoprire le diverse sfaccettature umane ed artistiche di Raptuz: prima di lasciare spazio alle immagini, l'artista racconta la sua passione per il writing nata come folgorazione istantanea e coltivata nel degrado delle periferie, sempre allerta nei confronti della polizia. Le esperienze si susseguono: le crew, gli anni a Los Angeles, il ritorno in Italia, i primi riconoscimenti. La passione si fa arte. "We were outlaws": il primo squarcio d'immagini riferito al periodo in cui Raptuz era considerato non un artista ma un fuorilegge, le sue opere non arte ma vandalismo. "100% wall": interamente dedicata ai graffiti e al lato più "street" dell'attività artistica di Raptuz. "Spray & more": l'artista ha realizzato svariati dipinti spray su tela trattanti i soggetti più disparati, ma anche opere vettoriali oltre al suo caratteristico font gotico, crudo e lineare. "Century icons": è un omaggio dell'artista ad alcune personalità, reali e di fantasia, che hanno caratterizzato la sua vita nel passaggio dall'adolescenza alla maturità, e che hanno contribuito a renderlo la persona che è ora.
