Excerpt from Program of Exercises for North Carolina Day, Monday, October 12, 1925: The State Flag of North Carolina and Some Makers of the Flag Of the North Carolinians who went into the army and navy, in the World War, some died gloriously on the field of battle; some died from hor rible wounds; some died of disease. Others went through the same dangers without a scratch; Others never went to France at all, but served here. At home. Why was this-so? The answer is - the fortunes of war. When a man joins the army of his country he lays aside for the time his own will and interests. It is not what he wants, but what his superiors think best that he does. This is true from the humblest private to the commanding general of all the armies. The watchword of the army is Service. Service means to obey orders. That is what every soldier is trained to do. He is trained to fear neither death nor suffering: He is trained to fear only failure to do his duty. An example of the greatest service is Robert Lester Blackwell. Robert Lester Blackwell was a farmer boy. I He was born in Hurdle Mills in Person County, North Carolina. When the war broke out he joined the 119th Infantry and went abroad to fight. He served with honor in Belgium and on the Hindenburg Line at Bellicourt. On October 11, 1918, in a great battle before St. Souplet in France, he-and a few of his comrades were cut off from their re giment by. The German artillery fire. They knew that unless some one carried a message back to the regiment all..
