CORNBALL PRODUCTIONS. Paperback. Condition: New. 158 pages. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 6.0in. x 0.4in.Did you recently graduate or get a new job Are you looking for advice that will advance your career and help reduce the likelihood of you getting laid off This is the book for you. CAREER ADVICE for GRADUATES offers 62 specific tips and examples of what behaviors and mindset will get you to the next level. In addition, there are 6 interviews with professionals who have experienced a lot of success in their fields. They provide feedback on the most critical attributes that can propel your career. There are many books available that provide guidance on how to write a resume, how to interview, and how to find a job, but there are very few that provide the necessary skill set to thrive once you have secured your first professional position. The attributes included in the RACI Squared framework are the essential characteristics in which entry-level professionals must master in order to perform well. One key to understanding these attributes is recognizing how they affect perspective, both your perspective and the perspective of your colleagues. The RACI Squared framework is composed of the following attributes: Relationships, Attitude, Communication, Initiative Reliability, Accountability, Courage, Intelligence Transitioning from college classes to a company position requires some change in behavior and thinking. Approaching a new job like one of your classes may not be the best approach. Companies, today, are looking for well-rounded individuals that can adapt quickly to changing environments. Providing the ammunition to perform well in the professional world, this book reduces the likelihood of hitting a plateau early in your career. In addition, the climate of the economy shows that companies are either forcing headcount reductions or consolidating, thus eliminating roles. In both of these scenarios, even above-average...
