Mischief in Mayfair

By Jim Green

Createspace, United States, 2012. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Clive Morgan, managing director of self-styled avant garde advertising agency, Morgan St Leger Ramirez, receives a telephone call late one Saturday evening inviting his agency to pitch for a twenty five million pound account. He summons key management to a meeting on Monday morning to discuss the opportunity which has a seven day deadline attached and which if successfully realised would double the agency's turnover. The meeting proves vexatious with outbursts of brittle bickering between over-inflated egos. Morgan charges his key directors Wynona Ramirez, Jeremy St Leger and Bryan Cosgrove with the task of devising departmental outlines for subsequent development into a full scale presentation. There follows an eventful all-nighter where tensions run high with two main players going AWOL and Wynona engaging in sexual relations with agency wastrel Harry Hall. On examining the concerted outcome the following morning Clive Morgan decides that three departments have succeeded in their mission while two others are in default. He castigates chief copywriter Jumbo Sowerby for an abysmal submission and hands over the assignment to a junior; marketing services manager...
