

Nothing More and Nothing Less: A Lent Course based on the film I, Daniel Blake (Paperback)

By Virginia Moffatt

Darton, Longman Todd Ltd, United Kingdom, 2018. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book. Nothing More and Nothing Less is a new and original Lent course by Virginia Moffatt, which uses the powerful, multi-award winning film I, Daniel Blake, directed by Ken Loach and written by Paul Laverty, as an opportunity for us to question why so many people in our society are suffering, what causes injustice and oppression - looking at examples from Jesus time as well as today - and what we can do in response. The course is based around five weekly group sessions entitled: * Systems of Oppression * Staying Human * Compassion in the Darkness * Fighting Back or Giving In? * The Suffering Servant Each session includes suggested clips from I, Daniel Blake to watch as a group (with timings for a DVD or film download), reflection points and discussion starters, a suitable Bible reading and prayers, and a short section of suggestions for ways in which course members could make a positive practical response.
