Hop on a bus, train, cruise ship, airplane, taxi, or even a cable car and travel to places hither and yon through the words of Pam Canington, as she takes you on her adventures in her exciting memoir I Went, I Saw, I Shared. It will have you (1) exploring ancient European cities (In Rome we hiked to the Bocca della Verita (The Mouth of Truth) which is the mask of a river god with an open mouth and is said to close on the hands of liars, cutting off their fingers); (2) visiting various United States destinations (In Washington, D.C. we had a special pass to enter the House of Representatives Gallery where the President delivers his State of the Union speeches); and (3) setting sail on multi-day ocean voyages (At Dunns River Falls in Jamaica we climbed up the falls which were steep and very rocky; it was very loud with water flowing down at a fast rate of speed), among many other expeditions. Perhaps you ll be ready to pull out a map and start an itinerary for your next vacation!.
