Forgotten Books, 2018. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Excerpt from Survey Graphic, Vol. 24: January 1935 December 1935 Labor Disputes bill. That bill, which was introduced last winter but never came to a final vote, provided in substance for a board with power to subpoena witnesses and records, and to make orders which would be enforceable (and also reviewable) by a direct and summary proceeding in the Circuit Court of Appeals. In that proceeding the findings of the board would be conclusive if supported by the evidence taken before the board, which would simply be filed with and acted upon by the Court. The witnesses would not be required to appear and testify all over again. This procedure was modelled on that of the Federal Trade Commission, which has proved on the whole to be swift, effective and just. The existing system is unsatisfactory in another and very fundamental respect. In view of the difficulties in procuring enforcement through court proceedings under the present cumbersome set-up, the main reliance for enforcement has to be placed on the removal of the Blue Eagle. I have said that in...
