Language: English Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from The Syllogistic Philosophy or Prolegomena to Science, Vol. 1 of 2 In bequeathing to my fellow-men the best I have to give them in the results of a lifetime of patient and single-eyed search for the highest truth, which at last have been wrought into the form of a new system of philosophy grounded on the principle of absolute logic that whatever is evolved as consequent must be involved as antecedent, I hope they will not deem it a mark of obtrusive self-feeling if I leave on record here a true and simple statement of its origin, both as a thought-system and as a biographical fact. No one can be more conscious than I am of its manifest deficiencies of content and faults of form, and no one could regret these more than I do. Yet at the opening of the twentieth century I conceive it to be the supreme need of the human spirit to understand that the mechanical philosophy of mere evolution - the evolution without involution, which is the half-truth more dangerous than a lie - is but a step towards the organic philosophy of evolution through involution, as itself but a step towards the spiritual philosophy of the identity in difference of evolution and involution as the continuity of Being in the Absolute Ethical I. This is the philosophy whose foundation is the absolute nature of the syllogism as necessary relational equation of the involved and the evolved in the world-process - that universal and eternal self-realization of Being through Knowing in Doing which determines the immanent and necessary relational constitution of the world itself to be that of the Absolute Ethical...
