Excerpt from The Fourteenth Annual Report of the German Mission in Ghazeeapore, From July 1868, to June 1869 In conclusion we desire to remark that Major Orr, afterwards requested us for another Catechist with the kind offer, that he would willingly support them both, to which we also agreed hence on the 1st of June last, Anand Masih with wife, and Benjamin with wife and child departed from here and have arrived there at Roy Bareilly to the great satisfaction of Major and Mrs. Orr. Anand Masih s wife was baptized here together with 11 other on the 9th May and was admitted to the Holy Communion on Pentecost. The motive and desire for the conversion of the be darkened heathen subjects of Major and Mrs. Orr, is most gratifying and cannot be valued enough may be Lord bless now the efforts and labor of these two Catechists and make them instruments for the conversion and salvation of many of their benighted heathen countrymen to the Glory of His Holy Name.
