By night we linger d on the lawn, For underfoot the herb was dry; And genial warmth; and o er the sky The silvery haze of summer drawn; And calm that let the tapers burn Unwavering: not a cricket chirrt!: The brook alone far-off was heard, And on the board the fluttering urn: And bats went round in fragrant skies, And wheel d or lit the filmy shapes That haunt the dusk, with ermine capes And woolly breasts and beaded eyes; While now we sang old songs that peaPd From knoll to knoll, where, couch d at ease, The white kine glimmer d, and the trees Laid their dark arms about the field. But when those others, one by one, Withdrew themselves from me and night, And in the house light after light Went out, and I was all alone, A hunger seized...
