Forgotten Books, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Excerpt from A Few Thoughts on the Abolition of Colonial Slavery The following Paper was prepared upwards of two years ago, as a Preface to one of Mr. Clans s Pamphlets, which was to have been put in circulation around the neighbourhood of Glasgow, by the abolition society that is instituted there. But the process which I have ventured to recommend, does not altogether meet the views of many Abolitionists; and neither have I found that it meets, at every point, the views of the West India Planters. Nevertheless, there is at least a theoretical beauty in the process, which might, perhaps, gain for it some degree of attention; and as to the experimental soundness of it, we have the testimony of Humboldt, who, in the course of his travels through the Spanish part of South America, saw whole villages of emancipated Negroes, who had achieved their liberation in the way that is here delineated. It should be understood, that our numerical details are given only for the purpose of illustration. About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books.
