Excerpt from Brown Alumni Monthly, Vol. 32: July, 1931 Hammond, making his regular rounds, came upon the two men in one of the small assembly rooms, and the fight began. The watchman shouted to three students who were playing chess downstairs, but although they pursued the burglars in the direction of George street, the fugitives escaped in an automobile. Hammond was not seriously injured. The men had evidently allowed themselves to be locked in the building with the purpose of rifling the safe some time during the night. Jimmie marks were found on a door and case ment in the basement where one of the safes is located, but the door had not been forced. The men evidently were familiar with the fact that Brown Union, the Cafeteria and The Bookstore, all located in the building, keep their day s proceeds in the safe overnight.
