LIVING INSIDE YOUR EYES (PAPERBACK)

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2013. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****. He sat on a beautiful rose garden and looked back at his life. Moni, a girl in the same class occupied his heart which he wasn't aware of until he was out of school. The feeling of unconcealed love seemed to be such an ecstatic feeling, that he dreamt about her and lived a life with her in his imaginations. He delayed declaring his love for her since he believed she would never fall for another. During his third year of Engineering School, he finally proposed to her through an e-mail. Declaring his whole lovable heart in the form of words, however at this point in time, she was already taken. He continued to ask her to leave her lover but she remained faithful to him. He understood that his love had spoiled everyone's happiness; of his, hers and his parents . His life became void. You at some point in time might worry that you missed me because you never understood my love. When you come across that stage just step out of your house and smelled the fragrance of a sweet rose and understand that you were the same fragrance of my life. You went away from me and I let you go because I believed that I had more than enough of you within myself. How much farther you may go, you will still connect with me and you still bring loveliness into my life. An email like this to Moni ended his love story. He moved away to a different place and started to live his life without any interest. He hated his existence, life and everything. He was disappointed that life was...
